I am now looking forward to the Big Day which I wasn't before contacting you. Thanks again!

Kealin, Belfast, Best Man to James June 2018 - Just read your Speech and I won't be changing a thing. You have captured the tone & content perfectly from the info I gave you, and our chat through following. It's just up to me to deliver your very clever words now I am much more confident than I could ever have been without your help!

Rory, Surrey, Best Man to Richard, June 2018 - The Speech went down a storm, and your writing it was invaluable, and well worth your fee for the pressure it took from me as I would never have been able to put that together, ever. I was bought drinks all night, so actually cost me very little! Thanks again... brilliant!

Danny, Lowestoft, Best Man to Daniel, March 2018 - Ken, You have done an absolutely awesome job with my Speech. The guests loved it and I got a lot of laughs... and drinks bought for me all night. Thank you so much... I will recommend you to anyone I know becoming a Best Man.

John, Best Man to brother, Ben, Spain July 2014 - "Big Thanks to you for the speech, Ken! It's excellent and funny, and although the wedding hasn't been yet, it has given me a huge boost, as you emailed to me a month ahead of the Big Day. This means I can learn it and practice it so that I deliver it with confidence that I would never have had if not for your writing skill! I really appreciate your efforts. All the best and regards"

Alex & Nick -Joint Best Men to Kienan, Devon July 2014 - "We were not sure where to start as joint Best Men, but we came across Ken's website and called him to enquire if he could write a joint speech. He immediately put us at ease and said to send in as much info as we could. He had the Speech written and e-mailed back within a week...and it was brilliant. He had even headed up who would say, and links to bring the other back in. A fantastic service and well worth the fee. Thank you, Ken!

Alym, Best Man to Avaz, February 2014 - "I had asked Ken to write a Best Man Speech for me in Nov 2012, which he did and it was brilliant. So...when I was asked to be Best Man again, you can guess where my first enquiry went!! He wrote it in a still very structured and humorous way, but completely different from the first one to make it very personal to Avaz. Great stuff!

Craig, Best Man to Mark, March '14 - "I sent in the initial details to Needabestmanspeech, not really knowing if I'd get a reply or not, but Ken contacted me straight away to clarify a few things, get a bit more background, and assured me not to worry...it would be done. And Boy was it! He wrote a fantastic Speech, and still very personal and funny, which got me free drinks all night, so thanks Ken."

Steven, Best Man to Daniel, November 2013, Edinburgh – "I was really, really nervous about the speech for weeks before the wedding, but a mate passed on the details of someone he knew at work who had the "Needabestmanspeech" website, Ken. Ken immediately put me at ease by calling me to say just to send him the info through the website and he would take it from there. He kept in touch regularly to clarify some points and had a fantastic, very personalised speech ready for me 3 weeks before the date....and it went down brilliantly! I have never felt so good and people were congratulating me all night...thanks to Ken!

Luke, Best Man to Dan, November 2013, Millwall – “Ken's service was second to none and his writing was hilarious and completely personal. No-one had a clue I hadn't written it myself as there was stuff in it that only people who knew Dan well would know, but it was so well done. Ken didn't just take the info I gave on the questionnaire, but he called me to get more info and just made it more personal. A great day and a great speech, can't thank Ken enough”

Phil, Best Man to Steven June 2013 – “I was the best man for my best friend's wedding and was terrified of the speech. I gave characteristics of groom to Ken and he wrote a perfect speech for me, on his first draft! He offered to make any changes if I wanted, but I literally didn't need to change anything at all. I received 2 standing ovations whilst delivering the speech. I can't thank Ken enough for his hilarious work! Brilliant!”

John, Best Man to his brother Philip, April 2013 – "I was best man for my brother's wedding. I had been putting off the speech for a long time and didn't know where to start. Before I knew it the wedding was a week away and I had nothing. I found Ken's website needabestmanspeech.co.uk and I was saved! Ken was such a pleasure to communicate with. He asked me for some information about my brother and had the speech written in two days. He offered to tweak it if I wanted to make changes but it was spot on first time. It was humorous and personalised about my brother. I can't thank Ken enough for the fantastic job he did!"

Iain, Best Man to his brother Russell, December 2012 – “I really wanted to write to you and thank you for the fantastic speech that you wrote for me. The big day was last Saturday 15th December, when my brother got married. The speech you wrote went down brilliantly! My brother, my mum and the bride all cried during the speech and I lost count of all the people who congratulated me on it afterwards! Having your speech gave me that extra time to get myself together, and the confidence that I wouldn't have a speech that people talked about for the wrong reasons! Ken you're a truly talented man, thanks very much for your help I feel fortunate to have found you on the Internet among all the other speech writers and hugely expensive public speaking "coaches". I have a groom speech to deliver on the 3rd of August 2013 I hope you can help me again!"

Darren, Best Man to brother Mark, September 2012 - "Ken - What a fantastic day I had at my brother's wedding as Best Man, thanks to your brilliant and very witty speech. It was great because it was so personal, that nobody thought for a minute that I hadn't written it myself. You really took the time to get to know all you could about me and my brother, and your personal contact by phone to clarify a few things was welcome as it put me at ease and gave me the confidence that you would deliver...and you certainly did! Thanks again."
